

21.1511/12/2008
C57REFERENCE DOCUMENTS

The Albury Wodonga region has been subject to a plethora of studies and strategies. The direction and policies that form part of this planning scheme have been influenced by these documents. The following documents are of particular relevance:

- Albury Wodonga Regional Planning Strategy, (Albury Wodonga Region Planning Committee 1991)
- Sustainability Your Future in Balance, (Albury Wodonga Region Planning Committee)
- Wodonga CBA Strategic Planning Report – Master Plan 2006 and associated Urban Design Guidelines, August 2007
- Healthy Lifestyles in a Health Community, An integrated approach to Municipal Health Planning 1997
- Albury Wodonga the Gateway to Growth, Macroplan (1998)
- Lake Hume Development Strategy, (Discussion paper 1994)
- Leneva Structure Plan, (EDAW 1998)
- North East Regional River Health Strategy, (North East Catchment Management Authority 2006 )
- North East Regional Catchment Strategy, (North East Catchment Management Authority 2004 )
- City of Wodonga Corporate Plan 2006-10, (City of Wodonga 2006)
- Review of Rural Living Opportunities, (Albury Wodonga Regional Planning Committee March 1993)
- Wodonga Central Area Car Parking Strategy, Ratio Consultants, April 2003.
- Bonegilla Structure Plan, City of Wodonga, July 2003.
- Wodonga Retained Environment Network, A threatened Species and Habitat Conservation Strategy, Albury Wodonga Corporation and City of Wodonga, September 2006.
- Gateway Island Master-Plan Review, Coomes Consulting Group, August 2002
- Rural City of Wodonga Statement of Policy in Respect to Developer Contributions, 1994.
- Wodonga City Council, Victoria, Heritage Study, Volume 1, Thematic Environmental History, Freeman Randall and Bruce Pennay (2004)
- Wodonga Heritage Study, Stage 2(a), Deborah Kemp (2011)