

Managing change, accelerating performance

Workshop series

In these challenging times, businesses need to continue to innovate to ensure that business prospers and is sustainable in the long term.

Wodonga City Council, in conjunction with the combined Chambers of Commerce, the Murray Hume Business Enterprise Centre, and Wodonga TAFE offers a series of workshops to assist small and medium-sized enterprises manage and strengthen their business. These workshops are funded under the Enterprise Connect program.

Managing your cash flow

Murray Hume Business Enterprise Centre

Date 26 May 2009
Time 9am–12.30pm
Venue 3 Stanley Street, Wodonga

Registration Joy Barlow 02 6024 0400

Human error reduction

Filomena Sousa

Date Two full day workshops 27–28 May 2009
Time 9am–5pm
Venue Blazing Stump Conference Centre

Registration Julia Fenech 02 6056 8302

Making your business more profitable

Murray Hume Business Enterprise Centre

Date 29 May 2009
Time 9am–12.30pm
Venue 3 Stanley Street, Wodonga

Registration Joy Barlow 02 6024 0400

Why do I need a business plan?

Murray Hume Business Enterprise Centre

Date 1 June 2009
Time 9am–12.30pm
Venue 3 Stanley Street, Wodonga

Registration Joy Barlow 02 6024 0400

Managing people

Wodonga TAFE

Date 2 June 2009
Time 9am–5pm
Venue Wodonga TAFE

Registration 02 6055 6000

Enterprise Connect is a $271 million program that aims to help Australian small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) acquire the knowledge, tools, and expertise to help them become more innovative, efficient, and competitive.

Registration is essential. Places are limited, so register now.

An Australian Government Initiative

