

Local Food Network North East and Riverina

Thriving local food systems building healthy communities.

The Local Food Network is a platform to share information, resources and improve partnerships to strengthen and sustain thriving local food systems in North East Victoria, NSW Riverina and surrounds. The Local Food Network recognises that a thriving local food systems benefits producers, the local economy and improves access to healthy foods for all community groups. We are a network that is open to all interested individuals and organisations.

The Local Food Network aims to strengthen local food systems by:

- Providing a forum for collaboration, sharing ideas and information
- Developing an understanding of short and longer term local food systems issues and the barriers to regional and local food security
- Support and encourage strategies and local activities to strengthen and promote local food systems
- Encourage government and other funding bodies to increase resources to improve local food systems in the North East and Riverina Region

The network meets bi-monthly at Gateway Health. New members are welcome.
