ENSEMBLE
Artist: Adrian Mauriks
Where: Woodland Grove
Medium: Fibreglass
Commissioned: 2004
Ensemble is about conversing. The pure white fibreglass and resin forms speak of hope and of a potential which appeals to our own potential.

PORTA
Artist: Ken Raff
Where: Entrance to Victoria, Lincoln Causeway
Medium: Powder-coated coloured steel
Commissioned: 2007
Porta (Latin for gate, entrance or outlet) is a monument celebrating the entrance to/exit from Victoria.
BRIDGES AND BOUNDARIES
Artist: Eddie Kneebone
Location: Gateway Island
Medium: Concrete, metal and stainless steel
Commissioned: 2007
Explores the history and relationships of Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples, their relationship with the natural environment, and the commonalities.

LAND OF REFLECTIONS
Artist: Dr Treahna Hamm
Location: David Winterbottom Park
Medium: Corten steel, concrete
Commissioned: 2017
The stepping stone textures and patterns were inspired from trees, tracks and the Murray River surrounding Wodonga.
PUBLIC ART

WATER AND THE RIVER LANDSCAPE

Artist: Anderson Hunt
Where: Stanley St
Medium: Steel, concrete and bronze
Commissioned: 2005

Take a closer look at the works and they appear as aerial maps, with details of river bends and farmland contours. In the middle of the city, a river course and floodplain, fabricated from carved stainless steel, meander through a gridded pattern of ochre panels.
With a season of live performances, HotHouse Theatre is an intimate setting where you can often meet the actors afterwards. The building is a converted 1928 factory, which originally operated at Gateway Island and backs on to landscaped gardens and natural bush on the banks of the Murray River.
