Part A Information	Where multiple parcels of farm land are used to operate a single farming enterprise, a person may only be required to pay the fixed charge once by applying for the single farming enterprise exemption. To apply for this exemption, a person must submit this form, completed and signed to the councils where the relevant properties are located. You must notify the council if the circumstances relating to your application change, as this may affect your eligibility for the exemption.
Part B Request details	I, _____ (name) of _____ (property), request that the properties detailed under Part E be considered a single farm enterprise for calculating the Fire Services Property Levy (FSPL) in accordance with the Fire Services Property Levy Act 2012 .
Part C Eligibility validation Please tick the appropriate answer to each question relating to the land which forms part of the single farming enterprise:	All of the land is farm land as defined in the Valuation of Land Act 1960. Farm land is land that is used primarily for grazing (including agistment), dairying, pig farming, poultry-farming, fish-farming, tree-farming, bee-keeping, viticulture, horticulture, fruit growing or the growing of crops of any kind or for any combination of those activities. You can still tick yes to this question if one of the lands is the principal place of residence of the occupier and is contiguous with at least one of the parcels of farm land within the single farming enterprise. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <hr/> All of the properties are occupied by the same person/s and are farmed as a single enterprise. PLEASE NOTE: Each parcel must be used to carry on a single farming enterprise. If the lands are used to operate several different ventures, a separate application is required in respect of each enterprise. A fixed charge will be payable for each venture. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <hr/> Each property is used to carry on a single business of primary production that has a significant and substantial commercial purpose or character; and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That seeks to make a profit on a continuous or repetitive basis from its activities on the land; and • That is making a profit from its activities on the land, or that has a reasonable prospect of making a profit from its activities on the land if it continues to operate in the way that it is operating. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

If you answered No to any of these questions, you are not eligible for the single farming enterprise exemption
If you answered Yes to all questions, please proceed to Part D
